2008 Iowa Flood Relief: Bishop Richard Pates is thanking the people of the Diocese of Des Moines for their prayers and efforts at reaching out for those who have suffered as a result of recent severe weather. He is also continuing the call for volunteers – particularly those with skills in trades such as carpentry, plumbing and construction – and the call for donations to assist those hard hit by the Flood of 2008. “The response to this tragedy on the part of the civic, secular and ecumenical communities has been exemplary. I believe it represents the genuine solidarity that undergirds our common humanity,” he said. “The Diocese of Des Moines has worked and will continue to work with all of these groups both in the immediate aftermath as well as the long-term recovery.” Volunteer help and one-on-one outreach continue to be needed. Catholic Charities is coordinating this response. Please contact Trish Radke: 237-5078.

REFLECTION QUESTIONS: (Zechariah 9:9-10, Romans 8:9, 11-13, Matthew 11:25-30)

What does being humble mean? (Hint: The word humble comes from the Latin word humus, meaning "earth." What do we mean when we say someone is "down to earth"?) How will you be humble today? How will you be gentle to yourself and others?
